I can feel a mountain rain
That'll wash away and shine again
Gonna empty my pockets that were weighing me down
Sift through my soul to see what's lost and found

Gonna walk away from trouble with my head held high
Then look closely, you'll see luck in my eyes

I can hear a howling wind
That sweeps away the pain that's been
Take all my sorrows
And I'll cast away the worries tomorrow that I had today

Gonna walk away from trouble with my head held high
Then look closely, you'll see luck in my eyes

All my troubles, all my troubles, gone, with luck in my eyes
All my worries, all my worries, gone

I can feel a mountain rain
That'll wash away, it'll shine again

Walk away from trouble with my head held high
Then look closely, you'll see luck in my eyes

All my troubles, all my troubles, gone, with luck in my eyes
All my worries, all my worries, gone

I can feel a mountain rain
That'll wash away and shine again
Gonna empty my pockets that were weighing me down
Sift through my soul to see what's lost and found

Gonna walk away from trouble with my head held high
Then look closer, you'll see luck in my eyes
Then look closer, you'll see luck in my eyes
Yeah, then look closer, you'll see luck in my eyes
