"Smoke Dreams"

Smoke dreams from smoke rings, while a cigarette burns

I keep yearning for you through smoke dreams
From smoke rings that old feeling returns
Can't believe that we're through

I try to pretend
Our love has ended but my heart tells me no
The dreams I resist won't be dismissed
Though I try to forget with each cigarette

Still smoke rings bring smoke dreams
And although you are gone, our love story goes on

I try to pretend
Our love has ended but my heart tells me no
The dreams I resist won't be dismissed
Though I try to forget with each cigarette

Still smoke rings bring smoke dreams
And although you are gone, our love story goes on
