Remembering the wind
Kiss soft the evening's end
I'm floating in a world of
Where I wanna be

I've played it in my mind
At least a million times
Rewinding to the world of
Where I wanna be

When we collide
A universe of stars fill our eyes
When we collide
Like Heaven has exploded inside

Suspended in mid-air
Blissfully aware
I'm drifting in a world of
Where I wanna be

There must be something wrong
All gravity is gone
Now I'm flying in a world of
Where I wanna be

When we collide
A universe of stars fill our eyes
When we collide
Like Heaven has exploded inside

When we collide
As the sun
Has begun to rise
I realize my pride

All my fears
Fall like tears of joy
Whenever we collide

When we collide
A universe of stars fill our eyes
When we collide

Like Heaven has exploded inside

When we collide
A universe of stars fill our eyes
When we collide
Like Heaven has exploded inside

When we collide
A universe of stars fill our eyes
When we collide
Like Heaven has exploded inside
