I never meant to be so so hard on you but my my pride had me thinkin thinkin that it was right babe thats right girl i really love you and it's drivin me crazy that your not here to hold me anymore

how long must i cry
how long do i have to try to make happiness my friend and how long will it be until you come back to me i need to feel your love again i said i really love you and girl im thinkin of you that no one in this world could take the place of you cuz you are my baby and you drive me crazy theres nothin else i would say or do if i dont have you back in my life im willin to live and die for you baby dont you know that my words are true i really love ya still thinkin of ya cant imagine livin life without ya i really miss you longin to kiss you cant live another day without you and everything i said to you its true i do love you baby

to make happyness my friend and how long will it be until you come back to me
i need to feel your love again
