Baby Listen,
I've never meant to be so (so) hard on you
But my (my) pride had me thinking it was right thing
Girl i really love you
And it's driving me crazy that your not here to hold me anymore

How long must i cry
How long do i have to try
To make happiness my friend
And how long will it be
Until you come back to me
And let me feel your love again

I said i really love you
And girl im thinking of you
Theres no1 in this world can take the place of you
Because you are my baby
And you drive me crazy
Theres nothing else i would say or do
If i dont have you back in my life

I'm willing to live and die for you baby
And dont you know that my words are true
I really love you
Still thinking of you
Can't image living life without you
I really miss you
Longing to kiss you
Can't live another day without you
And everything I said to you baby is true
I still love you baby

How long must i cry
How long do i have to try
To make happiness my friend
And how long will it be
Until you come back to me
And let me feel your love again
(repeat x1)
