All I can do
Is sit alone
In my room, baby
Thinking about you
How could this be
That you are not here with me
When I gave you the best of me
I face each day, each day
Without a smile and life seems so unfair
I feel like I wanna die
Cause you didn't even give me a last
You didn't give me a last goodbye
Baby
I've waited weeks for your call
I've waited here by the phone
But when the silence grew long
It grew too long
I knew that something was wrong
Right then I knew it babe
How could you do it babe?
How could you do it?
How could you tear my poor heart in two?
Why did you have to go away?
How could you do it babe?
How could you do it to me?
How could you do it, do it, do it, do it?
How could you do it baby and tear my poor heart in two?
Aint no more blue up in my sky
Only cloudy mornings
And these tears like rain you left behind
All of those memories
In the corner of my mind
I started looking at us
At a picture
In a frame as I start to cry
Cause I can't picture us apart
Oh my God can you help me?
Can you help with this pain
With this pain I'm feeling deep down inside lord?
I've waited weeks for your call
Yes I did

Ive waited here by the phone
Every day
But when the silence grew long
It grew long
I knew that something was wrong
Right then I knew it babe
Baby
How could you do it babe?
How could you tear my poor heart in two?
How could you do it?
How could you do it to me baby?
Girl tell me it's not true
Will I have to spend the rest of my life without you?
How can I get through
How can I get through this pain of losing you
Baby tell me why
Ive waited weeks for your call
Ive waited for your call
Ive waited here by the phone
By my phone
But when the silence grew long
I knew it, I knew it, I knew it, I knew it
Something was wrong baby
I knew that something was wrong
Right then I knew it babe
How could you do it babe?
Whyd you do this to me
Whyd go away?
How could you tear my poor heart in two?
Ive waited weeks for your call
Ive waited here by the phone
Break it down, break it down, break it down, break it down, break it down
Baby
But when the silence grew long
I knew that something was wrong
Right then I knew it babe
I didn't mean to do it
I didn't mean to do it
Whatever I did
How could you do it babe?
How could you tear my poor heart in two?
Whatever, whatever, oh no, no, no
How could you do it babe
And you know
You know do it, do it, do it?
How could you do it baby and tear my poor heart in two Sorry baby, baby
Said Im so sorry baby
