Baby, listen

I never meant to be so, so, hard on you
But my, my pride had me thinking
Thinking that it was the right thing
But girl I really love you
And it's drivin' me crazy
That you're not here to hold me anymore

How long must I cry?
How long do I have to try?
To make happiness my friend
And how long will it be
Until you come back to me
And let me feel your love again?

I said I really love you
And girl I'm thinking of you
There's no one in this world could take the place of you
Because you are my baby
And you drive me crazy
There's nothing else I would say or do, if I don't have you, back in my life

I'm willin' to live and die for you
Baby, don't you know that my words are true
I really love you, still thinking of you
Can't imagine living life without you

I really miss you, no need to dis you
Can't live another day without you
And everything I say to you, baby it's true
I still love you baby

How long must I cry?
How long do I have to try?
To make happiness my friend
And how long will it be
Until you come back to me
And let me feel your love again?

How long must I cry?

How long do I have to try?
To make happiness my friend
And how long will it be
Until you come back to me
And let me feel your love again?
