Someone delivered a message so humble
It's hard to believe it made our world tumble
It said "The times they are a-changing
Out with the old and the aging
However sad, dear God is dead
The fear of the devil is yesterday's fad!"

Lights sweep across the room
All hearts go boom boom boom
This evil little tune
Has everyone dancing

There is no stopping now
Mindblowing to see just how
The world is spinning 'round
With everyone dancing

We got sold on our own weakness
Without knowing we were the business
Now all the damage is done
Dignity completely gone
Sold our souls 'cos we needed a fix
Now we're sailing across the river Styx

Lights sweep across the room
All hearts go boom boom boom
This evil little tune
Has everyone dancing

There is no stopping now
Mindblowing to see just how
The world is spinning 'round
With everyone dancing
