You

You say, you say, you say, you flying
And it feel so good
You say, you say, you say, you flying
And it feel so good

You can take this higher
You say, you say, you say, you flying
And it feel so good
You can take this higher
You say, you say, you say, you flying

Love, do we really know the meaning, 'cause we always fuss and fight
And the mind is so deceiving, when the heart can't stead you right
So I wrote this song to tell you, that I can't stand alone in the fire
Forget the lies they sell you, only you can take me high

Love without a second
Far to close to mention
Love without a second
Far to close to mention

You can take this higher
And be all the stars above
You can take this higher
Than I can

You can take this higher
And be all the stars above
You can take this higher
Than I can

There's no need keeping it separated
Just show me we moving together now
Ain't no need keeping it separated
Just show me we moving together

Yo, you really got me going, you took me for a ride

Funny how you got two faces, Dr. Jeckle, Mr. Hyde
I try to swallow my pride but then I choke People thinking this is just a joke, never really got the verses I wrote

Its just a rap song thats all, people do not care
Do it for money and power and rolleys in the air
But you know who be returning so people don't fear
I got to take it high and disappear, I got to do it

You can take this higher
And be all the stars above
You can take this higher
Than I can

You can take this higher
Than I can

There's no need keeping it separated

You can take this higher
And it feel so good
You say, you say, you say, you flying
And it feel so good

You can take this higher
And it feel so good
You say, you say, you say, you flying
And it feel so good

You can take this higher
And it feel so good
You can take this higher
You say, you say, you say, you flying
And it feel so good

You say, you say, you say, you flying
And it feel so good
You say, you say, you say, you flying
And it feel so good
