Swing high then swing low
I know, we all know
Swing high then swing low
I know

I was rushing to the end
Touching everything I saw again
And hoping to pretend
I was knocking on heaven's door
My friends but I was just a fool
Caught up in the game

Everything was cool
Believing in my name instead of his
And when the sun came out
I couldn't find a shade
I am not afraid
Of the light anymore

Patience
Heavens on your side
Be patient
The universe is wise
Patience
Everything is grand
Use patience
And you can understand

Now everyone knows
We hold the key
Deep in our souls
But we are livin' a life
On the surface yo
What is the purpose of

Living lies, somebody tell me
Some hearts are made of stone
They'll find their way back home
I know I walk the path of life eternally
To be free, its all time

Patience

Heavens on your side
Be patient
The universe is wise
Patience
Everything is grand
Use patience
And you can understand

Swing high then swing low
I know, we all know
Swing high then swing low
I know
