I've come to tell you all the truth
Though you always had the proof of it
My arms will grow chest expanding
Of all the boys you could have landed
Why'd it have to be me?
You...can't take my eyes off of you ...you...can't take my eyes off of you
Wisdom tells me turn away

Broken once, it's all the same
My arms will grow
Chest expanding of all the boys you could have landed
Why'd it have to be me?
You...can't take my eyes off of you...you...can't take my eyes off of you...
