"Colors"

Everyday, have to choose so many colors to match, my mood.
What to wear, where to go, sometimes I don't really know.
Oh no.
Rainbows of ribbons and every shape,
Wish I could just fly away.
Monday, blue is the color that's spinning around in my head,
Tuesday comes and I wanna wear red,
Wanna wear red.
Part of me wants to be something the world hasn't seen,
you See that I cant explain very strange, suddenly I prefer gray, Okay.
Pink, yellow, orange, and bright green, chartreuse
Sometimes I get so confused.

Monday, blue is the color that's spinning around in my head
Tuesday comes and I wanna wear red.
Wanna wear red.
Rainbows of ribbons and every shape,
Wish I could just fly away,
Hey!
Monday, blue is the color that's spinning around in my head,
Tuesday comes and I wanna wear red,
Monday, blue is the color that's spinning around in my head,
Tuesday comes and I wanna wear red,
Monday blue is the color.
