I turn the key; situation is electrical
Take a breath with all my senses heightened in a slow salvation
From a life pretending
You show me all the places that you wanna go
I come inside and never knew the feeling of a slow surrender
Mind is bending

Someday, we will become one, find our own way
Someday we will be forever
One day it could be so
You and I are nothing

The mirror tells a history I never won
But you don't mind and all the weight is lifted with an understanding
You drop defenses
My hands are shaking as I touch you for the first time
I've been waiting for this moment
For this moment

Someday, we will become one, find our own way
Someday we will be forever
One day it could be so
You and I are nothing

We really gonna take the time?

We really gonna fight to see it through?
I've suffered with the wait for so long
This is the calling
This is the reason that I'm never gonna let you fall away

This is the motion, this is the meaning
And you know I'll never let you fall away
This is the moment and I can feel it
I've been looking for a love like this to save me
Suffered with the wait for so long

Someday, we will become one, find our own way
Someday we will be forever

One day it could be so
You and I are nothing

Someday, we will become one, find our own way
Someday we will be forever
One day it could be so
You and I are nothing
You and I are nothing
