Yeah, tell your moms to mind her business

Your mom's in my business, she's in my business Can't you see, girl, that your mom's trying to end this?
Your mom's in our business Now tell your moms to mind her business before I let go

Your mom's in our business, she's in our business
Can't you see, girl, that your mom's trying to end this?
Your mom's in our business
Now tell your moms to mind her business before I let

When I first met your moms, I gave your mom respect
But now I see she knows me, I see that she suspects I'm some bad guy, I don't know why You have to tell your mother lies about you and I
But when your first told me, she said that I was a no, no 'Cause of my haircut and people call me Solo

Before the time you said, you really didn't care Now you tell me to change my name or even cut my hair
How would you ever go become somebody's wife
And at the age of 22, you let your mother run your life?
Me, I'm not the type to tell your moms to get lost Yell out loud to flip and get my point across

See I think you should tell your moms to leave us two alone
And stop reading our love letters and eaves dropping on the phone Cause if you really liked my, you'd let your mommy know
She gotta mind her business before I let go

Your mom's in our business, she's in our business
Can't you see girl that your mom's trying to end this?
Your mom's in our business
Now tell your moms to mind her business before I let
go

Now tell your moms to mind her business before I let

Remember your sister and her boyfriend Sam Seed?
Your momma's the real reason why your sister lost her man
Her and Sam went together, for a real long time But Sam controlled her body while your mom controlled her mind

Not saying she was hurt when your moms made 'em break up Deep down I could tell, though, your sister wanted to make up With Sam, because she wanted to become his wife And now she can't do that because your mother runs her life

You baby, you do the same things, too
You always want to do the crazy things Your mommy wants you to do Like when we went to the movie, she had to come along I went back and forth and forth and back for peanuts and popcorn

She took advantage, 'cause I was living fat I couldn't even watch the movie, she kept me running back For something that she wanted somewhere else in the store
I walked and got it all 'til the man said there's no more And when I got back to the car, she took her time to move over
When I sat in the car, my movie was like over

I was mad, hurt, I didn't want to talk Deep down I wanted you and your mommy both to walk I took you home anyway, like what the heck 'Cause I was raised to treat people's mothers with respect
But when we got to your home, we wasn't left alone
She waited there in the car with us until I headed home

You called me on the phone, saying you were alone But that's a lie because I heard your moms breathing on the phone
And if you really like me, let your moms know She should mind her business before I let go

Your mom's in our business, she's in our business
Can't you see girl that your mom's trying to end this?

Your mom's in our business
Now tell your moms to mind her business before I let
go
Now tell your moms to mind her business before I let

Without a doubt, me, like when I come to your house She'll ask me crazy questions and start looking in my mouth
Her friends start laughing and I feel just like a jerk I told 'em I don't know where my mom and dad work

I really know where they work, but that's between them and me
I can't be putting mom and dad's business in the street 'Cause if I told her that my family both work for the state Right after that she would've asked me how much money do they make Then she'd go around the town, bragging and boasting Telling the neighborhood what my family's grossing

Your moms, your moms, why is she so nosy?
She plays me like a game but I'm no ring-around-the-rosy
I even seen your dad at the family barbecue He said, "I don't see nothing wrong with my daughter seeing you"
But it's your wife mister, she don't think that I'm charming She thinks she's Mr. Whippit and she thinks I'll squeeze her Charmin

I promise, I won't do this to your daughter, calm man 'Cause when I'm with girls, my reputation is not harming
If I'm not on tour, I'm working out at my house I'll pick your daughter up sometime, and I'll even take her out
And every time I try to do this, I see without a doubt Your wife will follow me around like a cop on a stakeout

And when I told the man that, I thought he would help me out
'Til he said, "I can't tell her nothing, she'll kick me out the house"
See, I know you girls, I know you girls
I know you girls, I know you girls

Mothers love you and they're concerned
But if you don't solve your own problems

Then how can you learn?
And guys, if you're in a relationship like this Don't be afraid to tell your girlfriend Tell your moms to mind her business

But after me and you girl, I'd rather stay solo Because your moms can't mind her business I'm a have to let you go Because your mom is in my business

Your mom's in our business, she's in our business
Can't you see girl that your mom's trying to end this?
Your mom's in our business
Now tell your moms to mind her business before I let
go
Now tell your moms to mind her business before I let
