I wanna be your knight in shining armour,
I wanna be your hero on a big white horse
Be the one to find your missing slipper,
You don't have to look for true love anymore

Close your eyes and go to sleep,
I'll be next to you
Wake you up with just one kiss,
Some dreams still come true

I wanna be the shoulder that you lean on,
Solid as the circle in your band of gold,
The first thing that you smile at every morning,
The rocking chair beside you when we're growing old

Close your eyes and go to sleep,
I'll be next to you
Wake you up with just one kiss,
Some dreams still come true

Close your eyes and go to sleep,
I'll be next to you
Wake you up with just one kiss,
Some dreams still come true.

Wake you up with just one kiss,
Some dreams still come true.
