ill be here for breakfast then im on my way
on the way to work
i drive by her place it hurts like hell every single time but there aint nobody gunna change my mind

chorus:
sure as the sun comes up sure as i drink to much sure as im still in love she dont want me back well i know for certain by the time the daylight fades im gunna do something stupid today around 5 o clock ill be all alone ill dial her number on the telephone she wont answer cause she knows to well that talking to a fool dont ever help nooo

chorus

call me stubborn call me crazy
call me out of touch but maybe if you hurt this bad you might just do the same

i know for certain
yeahah im gunna do something
ohhhh ohh
