They call me fool and a dreamer
Tell me I'm wasting my time
How I research for the rest of my life
For a rainbow I'll never will find

It's true I'm a fool and a dreamer
I'll do what a dreamer must do
I'll dream long enough
And I just may be fool enough
To see my dream come true

Sail to the ground
In one last burst of sound
Song of sorrow
For you are my dream maker
I need a dream now to borrow
Like me or not
It will all be forgotten tomorrow

Sail to the ground
In one last burst of sound
Song of sorrow

It's true I'm a fool and a dreamer
I'll do what a dreamer would do
I'll dream long enough
And I just may be fool enough
To see my dreams come true
