I can take the rain on the roof of this empty house That don't bother me. I can take a few tears now and then And just let them out. I'm not afraid to cry Every once in a while even though goin' on With you gone still upsets me. There are days Every now and again I pretend I'm okay But that's not what get me What hurt the most Was being so close And having so much to say And watching you walk away Never knowing What could have been And not seein' that lovin' you Is what I was tryin' to do It's hard to force that smile when I See our old friends and I'm alone Still harder Gettin' up, Gettin' dressed Livin' with this regret But I know if could do it over I would trade away ,give all these words That I saved in my heart That I left unspoken What hurts the most Was being so close And having so much to say And watching you walk away Never knowing What could have been And not seein' that lovin you Is I was tryin' to do I'm afraid to cry Every once in a while even though goin' on With you gone still upsets me There are days Every now and again I pretend I okay But that's not what gets me What hurts the most Was being so close And having so to say And watching walk away Never knowing What could have And not seein' that lovin' you Is what I tryin' to do What hurts the most Was being so close And having so much to say And watching walk away Never knowing What could have been And not seein' that I lovin' you Is what I tryin' to do
