Everytime I see you baby I get crazy dizzy playin like I'm busy
And I never stop to notice you around the friends
the crew I bet you never knew
The feeling that I always hide away no longer will I keep locked up so deep in me
Gonna use what I got, to get what I want.
I'm not gonna stop till I break your heart.

Well I used to sit up in my room waiting for the phone to ring Wishing that it was my baby Drifting down the hallways just a praying for my pager to sing Didn't know what to do I went crazy
So I searched for a spell I could put you under And I waited and I wondered Heard a voice on the breeze of a distant thunder Saying, take him if you want him girl you know what you gotta do

Come on Come on I'm gonna break your heart this time oh baby
Here I am I'm gonna make you see that your love will be mine
Come on Come on
I'm gonna break your heart this time

Baby I have arrived
And I'm right on time
My time for breaking your heart my baby

I know you don't consider the potential to be much more than friends, If I left it to you baby
So I intend to show you what a girl can do when she plays to win
So you better come through, and get crazy So we danced for the stars we were wishing under
And we waited and we hungered

Heard a voice on the breeze of a distant thunder Saying show him what you've got, you know the powers in you

Everytime I see you baby I get crazy dizzy
playin like I'm busy
And I never stop to notice you around the friends
the crew I bet you never knew
The feeling that I always hide away no longer will I
keep locked up so deep in me
Gonna use what I got, to get what I want.
I'm not gonna stop till I break your heart.

My time for breaking your heart...
