Fault lines formed through pride
Leave no room for the divine
It took seven day for tears to make waves

:chorus:

Don't stand for nothing and try
To build you name by shaming others
Why would we complete
As if on opposite teams when
We are really simblings
High time we change all of our minds

Fractions formed our bones
And from those measurements
The Earth became our Home
Or in better terms our life's vacation

Don't take pride in anything that you've toiled to achieve
Make love your best friend and enjoy time

:chorus:

No eye has seen
No ear has heard
No mind has conceived
What has been prepared for those who love
