Holy – KadriL

Silence sings a sweet phrase
Got you in my suitcase
I will take you everywhere I go

Sailing on a soft breeze
Breaking waves of memories
Telling tales that no one ever told

Holy was the night and heaven was the day
I never learned to smile this way
Listen to the mermaids
Songs that make your heart break
I never learned to sing this way

Watch the steps Iâ€™m taking
See the stars youâ€™re making
I am not the air for you to breathe
Catch the moon heâ€™s falling
Hear the sun sheâ€™s calling
They havenâ€™t got the answers that we need

Holy was the night and heaven was the day
I never learned to smile this way
Listen to the mermaids
Songs that make your heart break
I never learned to sing this way

Catch the moon heâ€™s falling
Hear the sun sheâ€™s calling
Telling tales that no one ever told

Silence sings its sweet phrase
Singing with the mermaids
I will take you everywhere I go
