Said i need a place to stay, (oohh) You've always proved to be a friend, A friend on who i could depend (umm) someone i could tell my problems to (uhnhuh) that someone who could pull me through, the rough times, the hard times, the lonely times, those trying times, i need your help again, i hope its alright, i need somewhere to go just for the night,

I need a place to stay, a place where i can, clear my head, somewhere that i could be alone, can you help me (yea yeah)

My girl just keeps on stressing me, pills pop so high, i can hardly sleep, almost to the point of suicide, noone else to turn to, nowhere else to hide, i cant handle it, im losing it, im about to break, i cant escape, i really need you now, dont no what else to do, all i know is that im depending on you,

i need a place to stay, a place where i can clear my head, i just want to get away, can you help me, i hope its not too much to ask (why cuz you always been there) you always been there in the past, I just need some time to breave, see my friend can you help me please,

i need a place to stay, a place where i can clear my head, somewhere that i could get away can you help me X3
