You keep me waiting and I don't understand
But I'm trying hard to keep my cool.
No use in hiding
I know where you are
Cause you left too many clues.

Why do you say that you want me
When someone else is holding you?
I'm always ready to see you

So find the time
When will you find the time?
Come on and find the time
When will you find the time
For me?
When will you find some time for me?
I'm telling everyone that you're still my man.
I can hear them laugh behind my back.
Come on and prove it to me, show me I'm right
Cause it's time, it's time to face the facts.

So many lovers all over the place
But they never mean that much to you
You know it's me that you really want.

Why don't you find the time?
When will you find the time?

Come on and find the time.
When will you find the time?

When will you find the time for me?

Uh uh uh uh uh uh
When will you?
Uh uh uh uh uh uh
When will you?
Uh uh uh uh uh uh
When will you?
Uh uh uh uh uh uh

When will you...

I'm always ready to see you
So find the time.

Why don't you find the time?
When will you find the time?
Come on and find the time.
When will you find the time?

When will you
Find some time?
When will you
Find some time?
When will you

Find the time
When will you
Find the time for me?

Oh yeah.

[Repeated various times]
Come on and find the time.
When will you find the time?
