I want to be wrapped in happiness
All the time, now and always
You must understand
What this tiny feeling is like, yeah!!

Morning and noon and night and now
If you're not feeling enough
Don't feel sad
Close your eyes and listen quietly

You
Even wink
At this trivial life

Dreaming and singing laughing
Crying and dancing
Falling in love
Every little thing adds up
I think when you put them all together it's enough
I'll have every time in common with you

I can never, not now, not ever
Say it well
But in this short situation
Even looking at each other is important, don't you think?

Even if I get knocked down
In the cold town
You make it go away

Dreaming and singing laughing
Crying and dancing
Falling in love
Every little thing adds up
I think when you put them all together it's enough
I'll have every time in common with you

Once we get through today
Tomorrow will probably be the same

Dreaming and singing laughing

Crying and dancing
Falling in love
Every little thing adds up
I think when you put them all together it's enough
I'll have every time in common with you

Dreaming and singing laughing
Crying and dancing
Falling in love
Every little thing adds up
I think when you put them all together it's enough
I'll have every time in common with you

There's a way to rescue me, even if it's small!!
Please feel
Your happiness!!!
