I see your face, shape your mouth, telling me you love me

When I taste your lips, baby I melt

You got the greatest kiss a man ever felt

And five years later I still call you baby

You've been there before everything was crazy

I know you know that we share a soul

To the end we'll go

'Cause all I wanna do is love

All I want is love

All I need is love

All I wanna do, all I wanna do is love

All I want is love

All I need is love

All I wanna do is love you, you, you baby

Love...

All I wanna do is take away all the miles we could feel between us

Cause I miss you every morning I wake

Baby I miss you more and more each day

But every night I still could feel the power

Of your heart beat, cause ain't no love like our's

So hold on for me cause I'm incomplete without you baby

All I wanna do is love

All I want is love

All I need is love

All I wanna do, all I wanna do is love ya, is love

Is love

And tell the whole world how I'm feelin'

I'm feeling real good right now

But I was dealing, dealing with the strife and the stress

My money's been in the mess

Had my doubts about what's coming in

Then I realized that even through all of the hard times,

You've been by my side

You're the reason why

All I wanna do is love
All I want is love
All I need is love
Wanna do, all I wanna do is love...
All I wanna do is love
Love you, you, you, ohhh, you
All I wanna do is love
