Baby I'm all alone in the dark
Tonight as I hold you close
I fell the distance in your eyes
Now when I need you most
I hear the tears in the words you won't tell
There's little bit less, that you hear everyday

Chorus:
I feel you fading away
I feel you falling apart
I see behind all the tears
Don't let yourself cry... cry...
I see goodbye, in your eyes

After the roses, after the rain
Baby, I'm holdin on
And you feel a million miles away
Leaving you in my heart
I see the sweetness of what used to be
Becoming apart of my memories

Chorus

Baby, don't let go
Tell me I'm wrong
'Cause I need to know
I don't wanna believe what I see in your eyes
That you're dreamin of leavin, forever behind

Chorus

Goodbye, in your eyes... ohhhh
