before I lay down at night I get on my knees and pray that you'll be the one for me the one with me everyday and when I close my eyes to sleep I pray that my soul you'll keep and take me where the light shines high above

if I had a wish for every spell I'd cast on you, you know I'd be in heaven
its that I love you and I'll be your man each moment that I'm with you it seems that everyday it's brighter but in the still of then might your touch you know they make me feel so right you know I want to hold you I really want to hold you in my arms so let me touch you oh I wanna caress you and squeeze you tight so baby lets make love all through the night

if I had a wish for every spell
I'd cast on you, you know I'd be in heaven
you that I love you and I'll be your man

and when I close my eyes to sleep
shines bright...

if I had a wish for every spell
I'd cast on you, you know I'd be in heaven
you that I love you and I'll be your man

you that I love you and I'll be your man
