It's a quarter past 3
And baby you're still not hea
We've got alot of things to talk about
We gotta make everything real clear
'cause gurl I'm so confused
Now baby tell me what are we to do
Let's take some time to collect our thoughts
'cause we both deserve the truth, yea

[Refrain]

Was this all my fault
Or is all the blame on you
Where did it all go wrong
Baby please tell me what to do
We thought our love would never end
How did we let us get this way
Can we just love again
Again...

[Chorus]

Baby let's help us out
Try to erase the doubts
And in hand let's try and understand
Or we may just might need to make things right
I gotta know where our love stand
If only I could hear you say
That you would change your ways
Please show me girl that if you care

Then I'll just forget about yesterday
But god knows I wanna be your man

Now that you're here
Now that we're together face to face
If you think I wanna start a fight
Now baby that's just not the case
It might help if I knew
Your thoughts, your point of view
We took for granted what we cherished most
The three words that means so much to me and you

=Repeat Refrain and Chorus=

Tell me
Baby should we
Try and make things right
(Try and make things right)
Tell me ( Oh could you tell me baby )
Baby should we (Should we)
Try to make things right
( oOooOOooOhhh..)

=Repeat Chorus x2=)
