sometimes i come home late you're sitting up just waiting then you get mad, then i get mad then in each other's faces we throwing furniture it breaks into a million pieces so now the passion's spill we fall into a pit of (?) girl i cannot afford to lose you or say good-bye so even when i'm mad
i kiss you and i say good night cos we're only human and faults will be made but we still know that this is where we'll stay girl i gotta speak love and i need to show it cos there is no need to say no more when you're covered

girl just a little kiss in the morning some late night holding a little insurance for times that we've fallen just incase i'm not covered
just incase i'm not covered
here's a little insurance
just incase i'm not covered
here's a little insurance girl i need a little help you're not participating i say it twice, you roll the dice just to get me heated sometimes we need a rush but i will never leave you steaming that's why i insure you with this exact reason (whoa)

i cannot afford to lose you or say good-bye
so even when i'm mad

cos we're only human (we're only human)
but we still know that this is where we'll stay (this is where we'll stay)

i'm not covered (x6)
