Am I just dreamin?
Are you really here with me?
Is this just a dream
Or are we in my fantasy
Making Love (am I just dreamin?)
This is just a dream
An empty bed
But no more
No more you and me

Lookin back to when our eyes first met
Before our love had any regrets
It was meant to be
A mystery how you said to me
Said you would always cherish me
Love me oh so thankfully
You took your promise away
How did our love go astray

Am I just dreamin?
Are you really here with me?
Is this just a dream
Or are we in my fantasy
Making love
This was just a dream
An empty bed
But no more
No more you and me

Only memories of your last touch
Still I miss you so much
I want me and you
What can I do
To take this pain away
Just to hold you in my arms again

Never look back on the day
Now your love is gone
I'm all alone
Singing this song

Am I just dreaming?

Are you really here with me?
Is this just a dream
Or are we in my fantasy
Making love
This was just a dream
An empty bed
But no more
No more you and me

Man, why you gotta put me in this type of situation?
I don't know, but here we go.

You was always the girl my boys wish they had
And times when I was mad you would make me glad Ma, I pictured you out to be the perfect chick
Yea we went through our drama like any relationship
I thought it would go long
Turned around after a minute and you ended up doin me wrong
I'm in derranged sittin back contemplatin leavin
So to answer your question, yea ma you dreamin wow

Am I just dreamin?
