Verse 1

Every single second you fill my head, thinking about all the things to me you've ever said. Yes it's true, I'm always thinking about you. I want to take your hand and never let go, cause when I see your smile my heart beats faster so.

Chorus

Your smile is perfect to me. When you're around, you're the only one I see. I look into your eyes and stay there forever. Please don't leave, let that be never. Oh, your smile is perfect to me.

Verse 2

I'm always thinking about how we met, and when I looked into your eyes the spark was set. Then I knew, it had to be you, that I had dreamed about all those nights, and then there you were in my sight.

Verse 3

Yeah I remember the first smile to me you ever gave, it was quite a large one and a wave. And I'll always remember our first conversation, because it gave me more than just insulation. You make my heart fill with joy!
