When love takes hold again Controlling how you feel About me, about men I've got these friends who Mimic flowers
forever in my way
And dance on their enormity
Like celebration day So innocently similar you can't tell them apart That weight so heavy on my heart Cos They've been here
for years
Friends of mine,
white feathers
Collecting dust with tears
Making mine, white feathers

Confess to me expose
A pair of snowy white illusive shadows
and all it takes is...
One more shot
and then down I go
my lady
Down I go just maybe down I go my lady
One more shot
and then down I go
my lady
Down I go just maybe
down I go my lady

They've been here
for years
Friends of mine,
white feathers
Collecting dust with tears
Making mine, white feathers

One more shot
and then down I go
One more shot
and then down I go
my lady
Down I go just maybe
down I go my lady
One more shot
my lady
down I go my lady
One more shot
my lady
down I go my lady

Cos They've been here
for years
Friends of mine,
white feathers
Collecting dust with tears

They've been here
for years
Friends of mine,
Making mine, white feathers...
