My tears hit the cold, cold floor
I don't want to feel like this anymore
I made the mistake
Of letting you slip away

And now my heart breaks
Ever since that dreadful day
I thought it would work out
Now I'm full of doubt
Get outta my mind
Get outta my sight
Because what you did wasn't right

I'll forget you
It might take a few days
All my friends say
That guy isn't worth the pain
No more crying
You'll find someone new
Girl, you just gotta be you

And now my heart breaks
Ever since that dreadful day
I thought it would work out
Now I'm full of doubt
Get outta my mind
Get outta my sight
Because what you did wasn't right

The same old look is in your eyes
My feelings for you quickly die
I don't want to cry anymore
So you better just head out the door
