Kalai - Down to Earth

I'm watching you watching me again.
You're interested but bound by disbelief.
All my secrets are sacred so enter in and strip your mind down to be *****.
Day to day I feel so dumb feeding the fever inside your head.
I'm agitated by your fun and you be the center of my pain.
It's coming any day now.
He's coming any day now.
I'm far away but closing in to you.
The war is over but let the battle begin within.
All my secrets are sacred so enter in and strip your mind down to be *****.
