I could always play that part
Ruler of the grand illusion
Breaker of the kindest hearts
Sending out to mass confusion

You reveal my tragic flaw
Power's been confiscated
How did I become a part
In this game I created?
I'll follow even though I hate it

Hey~Hey

Karma King cried out fell to the ground
All of the crowd shouted
~Off With his head~
Karma came back round calling him out
Taking his crown shouted
Louder again~You're going down, down, down, down
The king was dead.

Suddenly I'm overthrown
Suddenly I'm at your mercy
Lead me to the great unknown
Lead me on and desert me
Like I have done to so many
Hey~

Heyyyy~

Karma King cried out fell to the ground
All of the crowd shouted
Off with his head

Karma came back round calling him out
Taking his crown shouted louder again
You're going down down down down
The king is~ dead

Losing my head
Crying instead

Losing my head

Karma King cried out fell to the ground
All of the crowd shouted off with his head
Karma came back round calling him out
Taking his crown shouted louder again

Karma King cried out fell to the ground
All of the crowd shouted off with his head
Karma King cried out fell to the ground
All of the crowd shouted louder again...

Your going down down down down
Down down down down
Down down down down
The king is dead
