Downtown she's walkin' alone on the street
Won't look in the eye of a stranger she sees
She thinks she's alone in a world gone insane
What she doesn't know is we all feel the same

Takin' the same route for twenty two years
A suit and a tie to dress up his fears
A left turn on Yonge as the radio blares
Sometimes it's almost like somebody's there

To all the questions runnin' round your head
To all the mysteries the key to unsaid
Love is the answer
Love is the answer

Mornin' is breakin' the light from its sleep
Strangers are wakin' that never will meet
One day we're born one day we die
Millions of lonely people wake up and try
We all wake up and try

To all the questions runnin' round your head
To all the mysteries the key to unsaid
Love is the answer
Love is the answer

To all the questions runnin' round your head
To all the mysteries the key to unsaid
Love is the answer
Love is the answer
