IN 499 B.C.E we took a little trip along with Spartans down to Salam

And the next thing you now

"we throw our spears and the Persians kept it running on down to Salam to the Gulf of Salam"

So the leader of Spartans said will take them by surprise and we won't thought our spears tell we look them in the eye

And we throw our spears and the Persians kept it running
on down to Salam to the Gulf of Salam

Will the Persians lose the war
But I can't go on to tell any more Because I was stabbed with a spear right between the eyes
And I fell right down with a big surprise
