I used to set my life on cruise control
Days just rollin' on Thought I was doing alright alone
Then I saw your smile, and then you looked my way
Yeah, everything changed

And I don't know how I got by
How I survived life living without you
Know now what I was missin'
'Cause I've wanted to kiss you since the day that I found you
Now everything makes sense to me
I never knew that love could be so sweet
Well, how love could be so sweet

Your love has taken me to a place
A place I want to be
Gets better with every breath I breathe
It lets your lovin' ways
Yeah, fall on me like rain, yeah every day

And I don't know how I got by
How I survived life living without you
Know now what I was missin'
'Cause I've wanted to kiss you since the day that I
found you
Now everything makes sense to me
I never knew that love could be so sweet

Every time we talk
Every time we touch
Every time I look in your eyes I see how lucky I am

And I don't know how I got by
How I survived life living without you
I know now what I was missin'
'Cause I've wanted to kiss you since the day that I
found you
Now everything makes sense to me
I never knew that love could be so sweet
Yeah, love could be so sweet

Ooh, love could be so sweet
Yeah, love could be so, so sweet
