Hey girl, love ain't got no rules
Hey girl, I may act like a fool
But still I'm not blind you'll see, carry me
Still I'm not blind you see, carry me
I, I know you know what I mean
You, you don't know what to do
Your burden is so heavy, carry me
Your burden is so heavy, carry me
Bebe, let me run into your life
And please forgive me for those lies
When the new year arise
In the horizon, In the horizon
You, you're like a lily In the walley
I, I'm a never ending alley
You and your dark curly hair, carry me
You and your dark curly hair, carry me
Run, don't wanna wait till kingdom come
Hurry up, you're in the middle of my story
You and your dark curly hair, carry me
You and your dark curly hair, carry me
Bebe, let me run into your life
And please forgive me for those lies
When the new year arise
In the horizon, In the horizon
