"Dancing In Disguise"

You never win the race if you walk in someones footprints
Or ever stand the pace if you don't start where it begins
The muckraker dancing tonight, you can hardly see it but she's there
Smokey room, misty light, always play underhand
No she'll never understand
Chorus
Variety is a spice of life - tell me how you mean...you know Acting on a silverscreen, so tell me Mrs Slowcoach and smart Alec
How come when you wanna walk you walk out of step
Chorus
The zenith of your career are long gone now
You can hardly see it but it's true
In danger zone you walk alone
Just like a bloodsucker, a backbiting bacherlor
Chorus
