What gives you rights
To have a voice for someone else and take away their choices on Life, sex, love, lust Your ignorance is tucked away in a crust of shit based on lies and Books of hate, sexism, homophobia, racism
A past of rape, past of greed, murder, torture, theft and perversion
Oh you fucking bigots!
How could you praise a kitty fucking group of men that tell you how your sins
As they fuck, as they suck
As they dance away so free living in your own country
How could you be afraid of change and want everyone to be the same
to be the same
If there's a hell
Then you'll burn, motherfucker Motherfucker... "ye bro".
