Please don't break my heart, be my one and only Please don't break my heart, stay with me for ever... I belong to you
Please don't break my heart

I've be wishing you were here to take away this pain Am I holding on in vain? I really need to know I made a mistake when I let you go, now I'm suffering...
Tell me what to do to bring you back to what we we Had, what we had so long ago
The times we shared so long before baby tell me what To do to make things right with you

Please don't break my heart, please don't leave my lonely
Please don't break my heart, be my one and only
belong to you
Please don't break my heart

My life seems so worthless since you went away
My days and nights so empty I can't go on this way Dreaming that we could still be one, all my dreams come true
All we had so long ago... The times we shared so long before Baby tell me what to do to make things right with you

lonely
Please don't break my heart, be my one and only
belong to you
Please don't break my heart
