Here they come,
the voices.
No use
to pretend
I can't hear
telling me
I Don't
deserve this.

They rape my thoughts
and rob me of my self-esteem
until they alone rule
of me.

If I were
to end myself,
will they
linger
with me in the after-life?
Is it a risk
worth taking?

They rape my thoughts
and rob me of my self-esteem
of me.
