

Kamchatka "Seed"

Visit "Seed" on MotoLyrics.com

When you took a look inside my self-satisfied mind,
you chose not to understand these things you came to find.

I have given something
you couldn't possibly share with anyone.

Now you sleep with one eye open.
Fear maintains to shine,
yet, you fail to see the beauty
in this work of mine.

I have given something
you couldn't possibly share with anyone.

Feel the seed I've sown inside you
grow into curiosity.
I know one day
you'll give in to the wonder what it's like to be me.

I have given something
you couldn't possibly share with anyone.
