Early morning she wakes up
There's a knock knock knock on her door
Its time for makeup perfect smile
And it's you that they all waiting for
Isn't she lovely this hollywood girl

Chorus:
She so lucky she's a star
But she cry cry cry in her
Lonely heart thinkin
If there something missin in her life
Then why do this tears come at night

Early morning she wakes up
There's a knock knock knock on her door
Its time for makeup perfect smile
And it's you that they all waiting for
Isn't she lovely this hollywood girl

Chorus:
She so lucky she's a star
But she cry cry cry in her
Lonely heart thinkin
If there something missin in her life
Then why do this tears come at night

Isn't she lovely this hollywood girl!!!!

Isn't she lovely but why does she cry
If there is nothing missing in her life
Why do this tears come at night
She so lucky lucky girl
But cry cry
Booty she's a lucky lucky girl lucky
If there something missing in tonight
Then why do this bridge is falling down

Why do this tears come at night
