Heart Strings pulled over nothing
Been one of those days
When nothing wants to change
Bough breaks, you bet the cradle fell
I know that I said "yes" well
Now I take it back

Don't make excuses anymore
I'll be the one who'll close that door

And one step to the right
Three more to the other side
I can't seem to make this fly
One more mistake
You ruined all the plans we made
You know just how to make a rain cloud
Congratulations, take a bow

Give me one good reason
That I should let you stay
That I shouldn't walk away
And cry me a fucking river
You can't deliver anything but pain

Don't try to buy back what was lost
I wouldn't give it at any cost
