Is it over yet? When she spent the week in bed Cause all your wrongs are wrong and you can't make em' right

Was it all a dream, cause your finally breaking free
We're goin' to feel the rush coming over us tonight

Cause we're going, going gone

Throw your hands to the sky like your flying Throw your hands in the air cause we'll shake it up
tonight
Hot hot like a fire
When electric hearts, collide

We're gonna to crash around, till we wake this whole damn town
We're gonna flip the switch, and plug it in
And when you loss control
When your beating heart explodes Your going to scream along to every song we sing to you

Cause we're going going gone

Throw your hands to the sky like your flying
Throw your hands in the air cause we'll shake it up
tonight
Hot hot like a fire
When electric hearts

Throw your hands to the sky like your flying
Throw your hands in the air cause we'll shake it up
tonight
Hot hot like a fire
When electric hearts, electric hearts

We're gonna take your breath away
Your gonna scream the pain away
And try your luck again, be strong, don't bend
Just give it all we can and do it again

Throw your hands to the sky like your flying
Throw your hands in the air cause we'll shake it up
tonight
Hot hot like a fire
When electric hearts

Throw your hands to the sky like your flying
Throw your hands in the air cause we'll shake it up
tonight
Hot hot like a fire
When electric hearts

Throw your hands to the sky like your flying
Throw your hands in the air cause we'll shake it up
tonight
Hot, hot like a fire
When electric hearts, electric hearts
When electric hearts, collide
