Fire burns in the desert
No return from the desert

We woke up the gods
Now they're lying on fire
Stained in the blood of an angry people

Chaos surrounds
While the sun burns the dead
Ave Maria, grant them rest

Marching through the wreckage
Evil has descended

Fire burns in the desert
No return from the desert

A deadly calm
Hovers over the masses
Terror crawls inside every home

Praying over the ruins
Faith is the only way through this

Fire burns in the desert
No return from the desert

Mercy for the fallen
May they rest in peace
