Early morning light had come
Watched you turn as if to go
With no way out, I gave up the ghost
Memories that paint these walls
This is where we made our home
There's no way out
Go now

As I heard your car back out
I collapsed inside myself
Now I can't get out
I am so lost
Packed your things and I left word
For you to come when I'm at work
This is it
For real this time

I can't cage your wild soul
I can't stop the tornado
I can't change what's become me
To get back nothing
I can't stop what's coming

I came home to an empty room
So much of me was wrapped in you
And I don't know what to do
People say it's for the best
But it feels as if I've failed this test
Could I have done more?

Here it is
Here it is
