Send me back, so much that I lack
To move you ahead
If it's all the same
I won't remain in limbo

You won't change, you must be insane
To think we can be friends
I feel so used
There's no excuse for you

Your love for sale
If I win, I fail
All your needs fulfilled
Wanted you until
The road made a bend
You showed me again
I trusted you then
But you showed me again

April showers brought me no flowers
A waste of all my time
I was blind to your disguise again

Acted like you wanted me
But it was a lie
You only sought one thing
But I still believed
I still believed
